3-DAY RETREAT ON THE HARMONIZATION OF PROSPECTUSES OF THE SCHOOL OF PART-TIME STUDIES

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Lateef Akanni Hussain, has approved a three-day retreat for the harmonization of the Prospectuses of the School of Part-Time Studies.

The retreat which is slated for Tuesday, 4th to Thursday, 6th December, 2007, at the Rockview Hotel, FESTAC Town, Lagos, will among other things, address the following observations in the current prospectuses of the School of Part-Time Studies:

- i. resolves all identified issues and problems in the current prospectuses,
- ii. harmonizes the delivery of information on available Part-Time academic programmes across the nine (9) External Campuses, the Sandwich Degree Programme, LASUSOC, Ojo and Epe Campuses of the University,
- iii. finalizes arrangements for the production of a new set of prospectuses of School of Part-Time Studies to be delivered to students in February, 2008.

Consequently, the expected participants which cut across faculties mounting part-time programmes are enjoined to attend this retreat with all relevant documents/materials that will facilitate the exercise.
