

UNIVERSITY MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE COMMENDS LASU LAW TEAM

The University Management Committee, at its meeting of Monday, July 26, 2010, applauded the report of LASU Team on the 51st Philip Jessup Moot Court Competition in International Law, held in Washington DC, U. S. A between 21st – 29th March, 2010.

The Management noted that Lagos State University was the only University that represented Nigeria at the Competition with participants from over one hundred and thirty (130) Universities representing more than ninety (90) countries. The team met participants from other countries such as the Philippines, India, Armenia and Zimbabwe. The team that represented the University at the competition comprised three (3) Law students namely, Messrs Ayodeji Michael Atere, Adedotun Peter Moses and David Oluwatomilola Otunla. Dr. Rufus O. Olaoluwa, a Lecturer in the Faculty (Law) accompanied the team.

Furthermore, the Management commended the University team that despite Language barrier, LASU team performed creditably.

The Committee was proud that the judges of the Court commended the high level of advocacy skills displayed by the team, especially in the indept knowledge of various international instruments and laws used by the team. The Management Committee also praised the team very highly for the brilliant performance and as well wished the team better luck in the future.
